

Venue: St Mary's Priory, Dominican Retreat Centre, Main Street, Tallaght, Dublin 24.

By car: Leave the M50 at junction 11. Take the N81 Westwards towards Tallaght and Blessington. Turn right at the first small roundabout. Turn left at the next roundabout. (Note the large roundabout of junction 11 and these two small roundabouts are very close together). Continue along this road for about a mile, then pass Lidl on left then straight through a set of traffic lights and take first right, this is a cul-de-sac and we are situated on left though the open gates, You will see The Dominican Retreat House straight ahead and on your right. Steps and a ramp lead to the Glass Porch at entrance.

By Luas: This is the best way from Heuston or Connolly Stations, and from Busaras. Get off the Luas at the Square, which is the last stop. It is normally possible to catch a taxi to the Dominican Retreat House from there, or the nearby Square centre. The cost is about 6 Euros. Ask for the Priory church which is located beside the Dominican Retreat house and more well known in Tallaght village, and then follow the directions through the car park in the previous paragraph.

Walking from the Luas: About 12-15 minutes, and best avoided if you have heavy bags. Begin walking in the same direction as the Luas was going when it stopped. You will come to traffic-light controlled crossroads with a dual carriageway. Continue straight across, and follow the line of the road. The road bends to the right. You should have the Institute of Technology on your left, and the old protestant church and graveyard on your right. Then you will see a high stone wall on your left. This is the Priory garden. Continue around the outside, passing Murphy's pub on the corner. Turn left here. The next entrance in the wall is the Priory Church. Continue past this entrance and take next left and the entrance to The Dominican Retreat House is on your left. The Retreat House is a detached building with a glass porch at the top of a short flight of steps and ramp.

By Bus: Many buses go to Tallaght, but the most convenient are the 65, 27, from College Green to Tallaght. On the 27 get off at the last stop on the Greenhills road turn right at the lights and take the next right and the entrance to The Dominican Retreat House is on your left. The Retreat House is a detached building with a glass porch at the top of a short flight of steps and ramp.

On the 65 bus get off at the stop before the I.T. Tallaght and cross the road and take the left turn at Murphy's Pub on corner. The next entrance in the wall is the Priory Church Continue past this entrance and take next left turn and the entrance to The Dominican Retreat House is on your left. The Retreat House is a detached building with a glass porch at the top of a short flight of steps and ramp.

From the airport: There is a regular shuttle bus from the airport to The Square Shopping Centre in Tallaght ,which is just a 10 minute walk away.
